

Table 2. Rare Plant Species of Stokes County.

Scientific and Common Name	Federal Status <sup>1</sup>	State Status <sup>1</sup>	Global Rank <sup>2</sup>	State Rank <sup>2</sup>	Localities <sup>3</sup>
Nonvascular Plant Species
Orthodontium pelluscens translucent orthodontium	-	C	G3?	S1	Hanging Rock State Park (historic 1975 sighting).
Vascular Plant Species
Asplenium bradleyi Bradley's spleenwort	-	C	G4	S1	Hanging Rock State Park (Tory's Den); Hanging Rock State Park (historic 1973 sighting at Upper Cascades).
Baptisia albescens thin-pod white wild indigo	-	SR	G4	S2	"south side NC 89, 0.3 mile north of junction with Bunker Hill Road"; obscure historic sightings from "open grassy ground between Cascades and Danbury ... highway 89" in 1937 and "roadside, Danbury" in 1958.
Botrychium jenmanii Alabama grape fern	-	SR	G3G4	S1	Moore's Springs North Bluff (historic 1942 and 1978 sightings).